

Alpha Psi Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority had its beginning in 1932. Since that eventful year it has shone forth as one of the leaders in all worthwhile campus endeavors and activities. It is well known as an advocate of high ethical standards and high scholarship.

Alpha Psi begins each year of active participation in enriching activities with its Station Project; that is, it welcomes incoming students at the train station and assists in every way that it can. The annual rush party of Alpha Psi is always a highlight of the beginning weeks of school. This year, Alpha Psi's "Mardi Gras" provided festive entertainment for the new students. Other activities of the school year sponsored by Alpha Psi are Quiet Hours, Sunday Schools, and such projects as contributing toys to different underprivileged groups and social or recreational centers. This year one of its many projects was the collection of magazines for presentation to different hospitals throughout Nashville. In February Alpha Psi presents its eagerly awaited "Founders' Day" week of activities. From February Alpha Psi progresses on through the months with many highlighted activities which truly help to enrich the life of the students of Tennessee State University.

The potent belief that men are as good as their ideals has long been the basis for man's continuous search for a zenith of moral rectitude. This same burning inward sensation embedded in the minds of seven noble bulwarks and nurtured to its maturity gave birth in May 1934 to Beta Omicron Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha. Thus Beta Omicron was founded upon moral discipline, proper training of the mind, and a perpetuating sanction for the eternal verities of manly deed, scholarship and love for all mankind. We believe that one can surely pay his debt to his maker and to his country through adequate individual preparation for service to his fellow man.

Beta Omicron is only a link in the chain of Alpha but adds splendor as does a gem of purest ray. We laud honorable obligation and cherish the capacity for loyalty to higher ideals. We know that only through harmony can a body of men in any endeavor obtain the maximum. This unusual mode of participation we have mastered with complete excellency.

Beta Omicron pays homage to Henry A. Callis, George B. Kelley, Nathaniel A. Murray, Charles H. Chapman, Robert H. Ogle, Vertner W. Tandy, and Eugene Kinckle Jones whose foresight and vision gave it the breath of life. Thus we will ever hold duty on our hands, love in our hearts, and devoted service in our minds, in order to be duly worthy of the terra firma on which we now stand among the vanguards of honored men.

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority was founded at Howard University, Washington, D.C., in 1913. The purpose of the sorority is to encourage high cultural and scholastic standards and to lift the ideal of finer womanhood.

Many philanthropic projects are conducted by Delta Sigma Theta annually. These projects include the giving of scholarships and job opportunities.

Alpha Chi chapter, founded on the campus of Tennessee Agricultural and Industrial State University in 1936, has since grown tremendously. Alpha Chi lives up to the ideals of Delta by participating in all phases of campus activities. In keeping with the ideals of high scholastic standards, Delta has received the Three-legged Scholarship Trophy for three consecutive years.

The freshmen are entertained annually by the sorority with a Rush Party. The "Delta Kiddie Party" is an annual affair where all sorors and guests present a toy on admittance. All toys are given to the Community Center to be distributed to the needy children.

Alpha Chi Chapter, with sorors from Alpha Beta of Fisk, Gamma Omega of Meharry and Pi Sigma, Graduate Chapter, celebrated Founders Day with a program and banquet at Meharry on January 18.

As an annual project of Delta, we anticipate giving the scholarship award again this year on Awards Day.

Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity was founded by Elder W. Diggs, along with nine other men on the 5th of January, 1911, at the University of Indiana, and was incorporated April 15, 1915, as the first Negro fraternity in the state.

Alpha Theta Chapter was founded May 23, 1931, by Leroy Boyd.

The purpose of Kappa Alpha Psi is achievement. It strives to inspire its members to do noble deeds and gain positions of usefulness to mankind.

In taking its part in the university and community life, Alpha Theta has sponsored many worthy projects such as the KKK (Kappa Kountry Karnival) and the Guide Right Movement. They also take an active part in other University activities; they give a Sweetheart Breakfast on Valentine Day in honor of their sweethearts and chapter sweetheart.

Somewhat different from other fraternities on Tennessee State's campus, Alpha Theta elects as their sweetheart a member of the University faculty and she remains as such as long as she is connected with the university. There have only been two sweethearts in the history of the chapter.

Many brothers are campus leaders and honor students.

Annual Alpha Theta members are key men in basketball, football, and swimming, having at least three letter men on each.

At A. & I. State College in 1930 there was founded Rho Psi Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, by Brothers R. E. Clay, Dr. Hale and Attorney McClellan. Brother Clay, amiably called "Daddy Clay" by students on our campus was the instigator of this movement which brought about the formulation of the chapter which was one of the first Greek letter organizations at A. & I.

Since that time it has been the objectives of Rho Psi to perpetuate at this institution the ideals of manhood, scholarship, uplift and perseverance, which are the four cardinal principles of Omega.

Relative activities which have enhanced the prestige of Rho Psi in the eyes of others, and of which every brother of this chapter is justly proud, are the accomplishments of their brothers. Having graduated and gone out into the world serving mankind, they have gained unprecedented laurels not only for themselves but for their mother chapter, from whence they came.

On October 8, 1913, A. Langston Taylor presented to Lenard F. Morse the proposition of establishing a new fraternity at Howard University, Washington, D.C. Charles I. Brown, another student at Howard University, was invited to assist in this movement. Conferences leading to the actual organization were subsequently held and on January 9, 1914, the permanent organization of PHI BETA SIGMA FRATERNITY, INC., was founded. The Board of Deans at Howard University recognized the new fraternity on April 15, 1914. The chapter was Alpha Chapter at Howard University.

In carrying out the motto, "Culture For Service and Service to Humanity," ZETA ALPHA CHAPTER has recently launched a program to give an award to the freshman young man with the highest accumulative average.

Zeta Alpha Chapter takes an integral part in the University and community life, in sponsoring Quiet Hour, Sunday School, and Spring Dances.

ZETA ALPHA CHAPTER

FIRST ROW: Ezekiel Bell, Ernest Brown, Johnnie J. Brown, SECOND ROW: Flem B. Otey, Nathaniel Perry, Samuel Robinson, THIRD ROW: Willie Scott, Samuel A. Scruggs.

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority was founded in 1920 on the campus of Howard University. The sorority was given a formal introduction at the Whitelaw Hotel by two Phi Beta Sigma brothers. In 1923 Zeta Phi Beta Sorority was incorporated under the laws of the District of Columbia. The first Boule was held jointly with Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity in Washington, D.C. in 1920. The first Regional Meeting was held in Washington, D.C., in 1927.

In keeping with the ideals upon which the sorority was founded, the idea of "Finer Womanhood Week" was adopted. The objective of Finer Womanhood, Program of Sisterly Love and Scholarship has brought together women from all parts of the United States and some parts of Africa, who have similar taste and aspirations for higher attainment. Since Finer Womanhood can be obtained and maintained only by helping others, Zeta Phi Beta has sponsored several projects.

From one chapter of five girls, Zeta has grown to approximately two hundred chapters, and as the years go by many pages will be added to her history.

Epsilon Alpha Chapter of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority was organized on Tennessee State University's campus on April 15, 1933, with six charter members. The sorority is proud of its growth and achievements.

The Archonian Club of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority was founded on the campus of Howard University for the purpose of unifying women who aspire to become members of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority. Since that time the Archonian Club has played an active part in all activities to promote "Finer Womanhood" on many college campuses.

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority stresses scholarship, zeal, sisterly love, and finer womanhood.
